SAVE THE DATE: THE COLLECTIONS FASHION SHOW ON APRIL 15TH

The Stephens College Fashion Program is announcing the 79th Annual Student Designer Fashion Show, The Collections, will be held Saturday April 15th, 2023, at 2pm, 4pm, and 7pm in the Windsor Auditorium. A student-led production, the event is set to show the world what Stephens College fashion students can do. An ever innovative show, The Collections Fashion Show brings the community together through a celebration of the future of fashion.

Every year, The Collections Fashion Show provides Stephens College fashion students with the opportunity to present their hard work for all to see. Students spend countless hours researching, planning, sewing, and tailoring to bring each of their designs to life. All their hard work is then presented to the Jury of Selection, a panel of fashion industry professionals that selects only the best designs to be showcased at the fashion show.

Last year, the 2022 spring show sold out of tickets. This year's show reflects on the changes that have occurred over the past few years and how we overcame challenges during the pandemic. Not only does the show reflect on the past, but it envisions a future that is bright, curious, and unafraid. It focuses on the magic of fashion—how fashion forms an illusion by skirting the edges of reality and fantasy. The Collections Fashion Show this year is set to be a day of beauty and fashion reimagined for a future world of impactful personal expression through dress.

Join The Collections on April 15th for a day of runway fashion made to inspire. As you watch the passion and hard work presented on the runway, we hope that you imagine the infinite possibilities along with us.
